Kentucky Board of Education granted all school districts a waiver of the March 1, 2010, deadline for allocations to school-based decision making councils.

The waiver was granted as we await a final budget for K-12 schools.

If we receive a budget reduction from the General Assembly, the Board needs to retain the prerogative to revise the staffing allocation for the 2010-11 school year.

Because of this waiver and uncertain state funding, I recommend this March 1 allocation as a tentative allocation only
