

The Atomic City Student Film Festival

2012 Copyright Release Form

Films presented at the Atomic City Student Film Festival are for educational purposes, but will be showcased outside of the classroom. Films may also be made available on the Internet.

Student filmmakers are encouraged to use student-created sound, graphics and video in their films.

With the understanding that may not always be possible, please use this form for any material not created by the students themselves.

All sources must also be credited in the film.

Failing to obtain copyright permission for sound, graphics and video that is not student-created will result in films being excluded from The Atomic City Student Film Festival.
